

The National Directory of Drug Take-Back and Disposal Programs (2nd ed.)

Descriptive information on rationale for this program, addresses and complete information on collection sites and comparison of these programs located in 30 states, to include funding, involvement of law enforcement, and primary destruction collection schedules. Listing of state health departments, description of state and federal laws on unused and expired medicine. A one-of-a-kind, key data source is our Registry that has data on: 200,000 pills, tablets and capsules returned and including: 1) strength, 2) quantity, 3) location purchased, 4) reason for return, and zip code. An excellent data source for professional research on numerous aspects of prescription medicine. 151 pages. M. C. Mireles, Ph.D., M.P.H., D.J. Lefeber, B.A. and E.A. Smith, Ph.D., authors.